

102

19th Century: Japanese carved bone wakizashi and dagger

A Japanese wakizashi type sword with bone decorated hilt and scabbard (missing bottom section). Also with a smaller dagger with similar decoration (2 items)

€150-€200 (£125-£167 approx)

103

19th Century: Middle Eastern Dagger and sword

A middle eastern dagger with engraved blade, leather scabbard and decorative wooden handle also with an unmarked cavalry sabre. (2 items)

€80-€120 (£67-£100 approx)

104

19th Century: Pistol by Collins of Dublin

With decorative brass fittings including vacant cartouche, barrel marked "Collins Dublin, M 2627" Missing large part of stock and mechanisms. A good restoration project.

€100-€150 (£83-£125 approx)

105

19th Century: Percussion hammer gun by Trulock and Son of Dublin

Dating from the early part of the 19th Century. Lockplates with scroll engraving and "Trulock and Son". With ramrod. Stock split and damaged.

€200-€300 (£167-£250 approx)

106

1853 pattern Enfield percussion rifle

A British pattern 1853 type two-band carbine. Lock plate stamped with crown and various stamps and markings to stock. A well used and interesting piece. Retaining ramrod

€80-€100 (£67-£83 approx)

107

1871-1883: French Gras and Chassepot bayonets

19th Century French Chassepot Bayonet 1871, marked 'St Etienne Juin 1871' . Also French Gras bayonet marked 'Mre d' Armes de Chatt. Février 1883". Both complete with scabbards. (2 items)

€80-€100 (£67-£83 approx)

108

19th Century: Irish regimental cutlery including silver Leitrim Rifles salt spoon

A small collection of Irish regimental cutlery including Leitrim Rifles hallmarked silver salt spoon by John Smyth of Dublin. Armagh Artillery tablespoon, Royal Tyrone Artillery tablespoon and fork, all three electroplate silver by Elkington. (4 items)

€150-€250 (£125-£208 approx)

109

1894: 5th Battalion Royal Irish Rifles silver napkin ring Hallmarked silver.

An attractive silver napkin ring, hallmarked Sheffield 1894, and engraved with the crest of the 5th Battalion Royal Irish Rifles and "E. J. K. Corder" underneath. Also with a silk handkerchief embroidered with a crest of the Royal Irish Rifles and an Irish Rifles cap badge of modern production. (3 items)

Edward James Kennedy Corder was born on the Isle of Wight, the son of a Major General in the Bengal Artillery. He served with the 5th Battalion Royal Irish Rifles reaching the rank of Captain and also worked as Assistant District Commissioner in Nigeria until 1907. On retirement he returned to his place of birth where he died in December 1937.

€100-€150 (£83-£125 approx)

110

1875-1904: British militia and Imperial Yeomanry silver presentation cups

Silver presentation goblet hallmarked London 1869, inscribed "Lord Walter Campbell's Prize to the 12th Argyle Artillery Volunteer Corps, Furnace, won by Sergeant Peter Drew, October 1875" (8oz). Also twin handled presentation cup made by Fenton brothers, hallmarked Sheffield 1903. Inscribed "Surrey (Princess of Wales) Imperial Yeomanry, recruits musketry cup, won by Trooper Ince 1904, presented by the officers of the regiment" (12oz) (2 items)

€200-€300 (£167-£250 approx)

111

1905: Militia Rifle Association silver goblet presented to Colonel Sir W. H. Mahon of Galway

Silver presentation goblet hallmarked London 1905. Inscribed "Militia Rifle Association Revolver Cup 1905, won by Col. Sir W. H. Mahon, Bart D.S.O., 4th Bn. West Yorkshire Regiment". Colonel Sir William Henry Mahon of Castlegar Co. Galway, was born in 1856 and served during the Boer War where he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order while commanding the 4th West Yorkshire Regiment. He was also Deputy Lieutenant for County Galway and died in 1926. The diaries and papers of W. H. Mahon are held by the National Library of Ireland (9oz) 9in. (22.86cm)

€100-€150 (£83-£125 approx)

112

1895: Antrim Artillery Officers' Mess letter and bill holder

A unique and beautifully produced large wooden letter and bill holder. With 24 compartments surmounted by an engraved Antrim Artillery crest with shamrock, thistle, roses and cannons either side and the monograms EP and AA. A small plaque placed between the crest and compartments bears the inscription "Presented by Colonel Pottinger 1895".

Colonel Eldred T. Pottinger CMG had a distinguished career with the Royal Artillery and was a well known Irish gentleman. After his retirement from the Royal Artillery he lived in Portrush, was captain of Royal Portrush Golf Club and also commanded the Antrim Artillery . He died in 1905. 38 x 32.50in. (96.52 x 82.55cm)

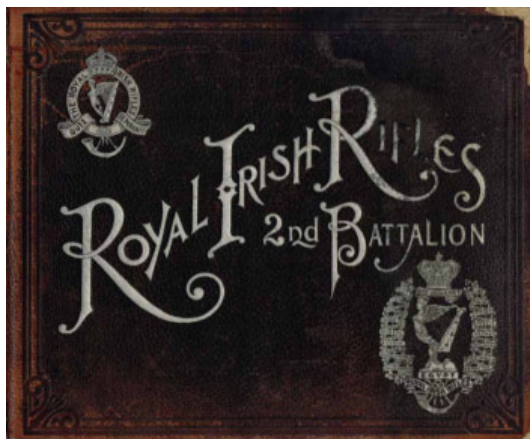

€300-€500 (£250-£417 approx)

113

1897: 2nd Battalion Royal Irish Rifles history and photographic book

Burrows, London, 97 pp, original boards. A scarce history of the Royal Irish Rifles completed in 1897. Profusely illustrated with large full page photographs of each company of the battalion, the regimental shooting team, Tug-of-War team, Officers, Sergeants, band, buglers etc. All complete with names. An excellent historical and genealogical resource. 11 x 13in. (27.94 x 33.02cm)

€200-€300 (£167-£250 approx)

113