

274

1917 (17 November) Darrell Figgis signed letter
Typescript letter on Cumann Sinn Féin headed paper, addressed to Francis Phillips, Secretary, Cashel Sinn Féin regarding a forthcoming lecture at the Manchester Martyrs celebration and signed by Edward Darrell Figgis. Also with a printed handbill relating to the opinions of the Bishop of Killaloe on conscription. (2 items) 8 x 5.50in. (20.32 x 13.97cm)
€100-€150 (£83-£125 approx)

275

1917: A Chronicle of Jails by Darrell Figgis, signed by author.
Talbot Press, Dublin, 1917. 1st ed., wrappers, 130pp.
With scarce signature of Darrell Figgis in Irish and English and dated 1917. 7.25 x 5in. (18.42 x 12.70cm)
€80-€120 (£67-£100 approx)

276

circa 1918: Sinn Féin Catechism by Darrell Figgis
Printed wrappers, 29pp. Small pamphlet arranged in a question and answer format on Republican issues. Also with Official Correspondence. Relating to the Peace Negotiations June-September, 1921. Part 1: preliminary Correspondence and Part 2: Correspondence Arising from the Conversations at London, between President de Valera and the British Prime Minister, Dublin, October, 1921 23pp (2 items) 5 x 3.50in. (12.70 x 8.89cm)
€150-€200 (£125-£167 approx)

277

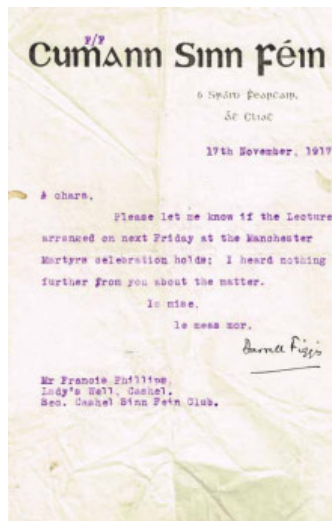

1917: Lewes Jail related handbills including 'Farewell to Lewes Jail'
Two handbills titled 'Strike in Lewes Jail' and 'Farewell to Lewes Jail' a song to the air of "Irish Molly O!" Also with a handwritten letter signed 'Mac' from Sean MacEoin dated 1937 (3 items)
€100-€150 (£83-£125 approx)

278

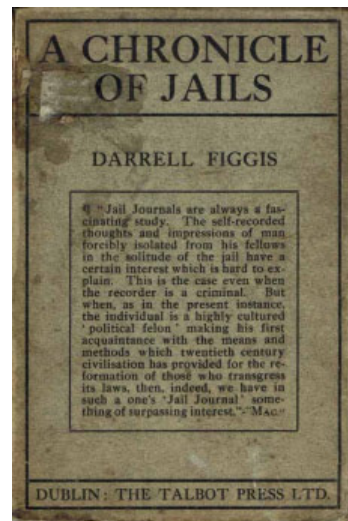

1917 (19 April) Irish Assembly Mansion House Conference ticket
Small green ticket numbered 52 issued for admittance to the 'Irish Assembly' at the Mansion House Dublin on 19 April 1917.
After Count Plunkett's victory in the North Roscommon by-election, the Count (father of the executed Joseph Mary Plunkett) decided he had a mandate to take over leadership of the independence struggle, and convened a conference in the Mansion House to discuss his plans. Sinn Féin took a different view, and the conference was packed with its supporters and ended without making any significant decisions (see TP Coogan, Michael Collins p. 66). A scarce item.
€100-€150 (£83-£125 approx)

279

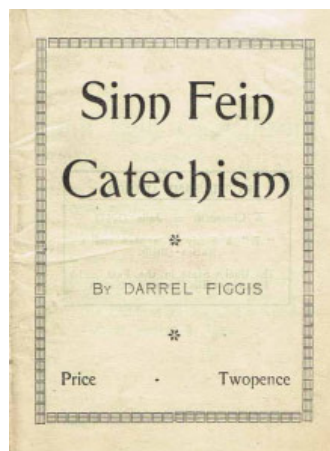

1919-27: Colonel James McGuinness collection including medals, sword, documents and ephemera
A large collection of items relating to Colonel James Henry McGuinness, Officer Commanding, No. 7 Brigade Irish Army. Including War of Independence Medal, 1971 50th Anniversary of the Truce Medal, Irish Army Free State Officer's sword, 'Irish Republican Army Portobello Barracks' special pass issued to McGuinness as a Commandant, in 1922, commission letter dated 1 October 1924, invitation and newspaper clipping relating to the attendance of Col McGuinness at a function in the house of W. T. Cosgrave, real photographic postcard of McGuinness in a group with Cosgrave, Military Service Pensions form detailing his service, letter sent by his wife from Kerry relating to the Civil War and the burials of soldiers killed at the Battle of Kilmallock, two small pocket watches, flask, small bugle, postcard of Kevin O'Higgins, military maps used for training purposes. Also a copied photograph of McGuinness and copied documents relating to his service. A comprehensive collection relating to a high ranking Irish Army officer.
€2,000-€3,000 (£1,667-£2,500 approx)

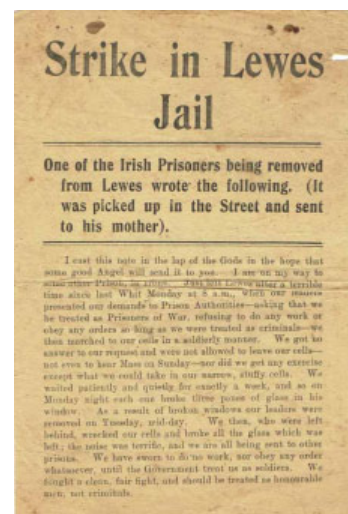

Ex 274

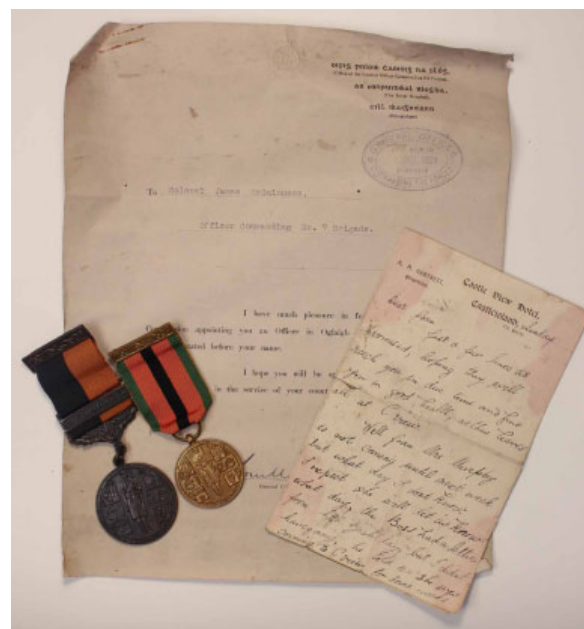

275

276

Ex 277

Ex 279