

BUYING AT WHYTE'S – a step by step guide

- Join our collectors' invitation list

Go to www.whytes.com and register your email address for notifications of Whyte's auctions, invitations to receptions and other events. Or you can telephone or post your details. A small subscription is charged for catalogues by post – this is waived for regular buyers.

- View the sale

Try to attend the pre-sale exhibition, but if this is not possible, email or telephone us for details of the items you are interested in – we are happy to act as your "eyes" and will give impartial advice on quality and condition of any lot in our sales.

- Bidding in the room

Register to bid on the day – you will receive a paddle (number) to be identified by the auctioneer when bidding.

- Bid live online...

From your personal computer or smartphone via our website. All our auctions are broadcast live in streaming audio and video so you can see and hear the auction as you bid – it's the next best thing to being there!

- Cannot make the auction?

Leave an Absentee Bid.

This is where you leave a bid with us and we bid on your behalf at the auction.

You can phone, fax, email or post this bid to us in advance of the auction. Lots are purchased as reasonably as possible, other bids allowing.

- Arrange a telephone bid

This is where a Whyte's staff member calls you during the auction and bids live on your behalf for the lot you are interested in. This facility is only available for lots of a certain value – usually in excess of €1,000 – and must be arranged at least 24 hours prior to the auction.

SOURCING IRISH ART & COLLECTIBLES

Whyte's can also assist in sourcing works of art or other collectibles at galleries and auction houses worldwide. Our specialists comb auctions and exhibitions throughout the world – both printed and on-line – to find rare and beautiful objects for our discerning clientele. We sometimes have offers of art and collectibles for sale by private treaty. We regularly represent and bid on behalf of clients at auction houses and galleries around the world.
