

THE ART OF SELLING AT WHYTE'S

Whyte's - Ireland's Leading Auction House for Fine Art and Collectibles

Whyte & Sons was founded in Dublin in 1783 and in the past three centuries the Whyte family business has expanded and evolved with the times from specialising in exquisite glass and china to rare stamps and postal history, historical artefacts, coins, medals, manuscripts, maps, ephemera, memorabilia and a wide range of other collectibles. The main business today is in Irish art from the great masters to the best of Ireland's emerging contemporaries.

Under the direction of Ian Whyte, this longstanding family business is firmly established as an art and collectibles auction house of immense reputation, both in Ireland and internationally. Coupled with the enthusiastic adoption of modern technology, Whyte's offers all the advantages and old world civility of a 'bricks and mortar' auction house with the convenience of instant worldwide electronic commerce.

Whyte's auction at the Royal Dublin Society

In six to eight carefully planned sales a year we offer an unrivalled range of Irish art and collectibles. Our main art sales are held at the Royal Dublin Society, in the exclusive south

Dublin suburb of Ballsbridge. Our other sales – including our famous History, Literature and Collectibles sales - take place in Molesworth Street with viewing in our galleries and the auctions across the street at the historic Freemasons Hall.

Whyte's city centre offices and galleries are located in the last intact terrace of Georgian shopfronts in Dublin, completed in 1831, near the famous landmarks of St. Stephen's Green, Trinity College, Leinster House and the fashionable shopping area of Grafton Street.

All sales are broadcast live, both audio and video, on the internet through Artifact (USA) and Invaluable (Europe) where you can watch and listen to the auction, leave bids or bid while the auction is taking place, from anywhere in the world. You can also view and bid from a smartphone.
