COLLECTION OF LOTS

Lots may be collected from our Molesworth Street premises up to 6pm on day of sale, otherwise Monday to Friday 10am to 5pm.
Purchasers must pay for and collect all lots within 7 days of the date of sale.
Any lots not collected within that time will be transferred to an offsite secure storage facility, incurring storage charges. Lots that have been transferred offsite may only be collected at two days notice once storage charges have been paid for in full.

All Whyte's catalogues are checked against The Art Loss Register of stolen or missing works of art and antiques.

Whyte's Auction App now available for free download

IMPORTANT NOTES

ALL LOTS ARE SOLD SUBJECT TO OUR TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE PRINTED ON PAGE 64

BUYERS' COMMISSION

20% (24.6% including VAT) is added to the hammer price of all lots. A further 3% is charged by Invaluable to on-line bidders.

ROOM BIDDERS

1. Room bidders must register and obtain a bidding number on arrival. Proof of identity is required from clients new to us.
2. If successful in obtaining a lot please ensure you display your number clearly to the auctioneer and that it is your number that is called out. If there is any doubt about the hammer price or buyer, please draw this to the attention of the auctioneer immediately.
3. Payment may be made by cash, bank draft, cleared cheque, debit or credit card – we accept Mastercard or Visa (a charge of 2% is made on credit card transactions). There is no charge on debit card transactions.

LIVE INTERNET BIDDING

You can bid "live" at this auction on our website. With live audio and visual broadcast you can see and hear the auctioneer and bid at the click of a mouse from the comfort of your home or office or wherever you can log on to the world wide web. You can even get an iPhone app to bid live at Whyte's from your mobile phone. Details from our website, www.whytes.ie The provider of our live bidding platform charges a fee of 3% of hammer price to purchasers.

ABSENTEE BIDDING

1. If you are unable to attend you may bid before the sale, using the form provided. Enter the maximum you are prepared to offer for each lot and the auctioneer will represent you as if you are personally attending the sale. Lots are knocked down at one step above the next highest bid, and not necessarily at your highest bid. Example: your bid is €1000 and next highest bid is €800 – the hammer price is €850.
2. LIMIT BIDDING: Absentee bidders may limit their total purchases to a set amount by entering their limit on the bidding form. This is especially useful for bidders wishing to cover as many lots as possible while setting a maximum amount to spend.
3. "OR" BIDDING: Absentee bidders who wish to bid on two or more lots, but only wish to purchase one, may do so by entering "OR" between the bids – the lots will be bid on in catalogue order.
4. EQUAL BIDS: In the event of equal bids being received for the same lot the first received will be given preference. If the instruction "break ties" is entered on the bid form the auctioneer will increase the bid by one step in the event of equal bids being received or in the event of a tie with a room bidder.

5. "BUY" BIDS: Unless otherwise instructed bids of "Buy" or "Buy at Best" shall be taken to indicate bids of up to three times the stated higher estimate in the catalogue.
6. INVOICING AND PAYMENT: Successful absentee bidders will be sent a pro forma invoice immediately after the sale with details of payment methods. All invoices must be paid within 7 days of the date of the sale or the lot(s) may be deemed in default and any subsequent losses incurred on resale become the responsibility of the bidder. The Auctioneers and House Agents Act, under which we are licensed to hold public auctions, only allows for lots to be handed over to purchasers when paid for in full.

TELEPHONE BIDDING

Subject to availability we can telephone clients during the sale. This facility is only available on lots with a lower estimate of €500 or more.

CONDITION OF LOTS

Note: The lots in this sale are old artefacts and documents and vary greatly in condition. They are therefore offered with all faults and buyers are strongly recommended to satisfy themselves as to condition by inspecting them beforehand. Please see Terms and Conditions on page 5.

SHIPPING / POSTAGE

We do not handle this ourselves but will recommend a suitable company who can collect your purchases on your behalf and pack and despatch them to you once they have been paid for.

PRICES REALISED

A complete list of prices realised and unsold lots will be sent automatically to all absentee bidders and will be posted to our Internet website (www.whytes.ie) on the day after the sale.

FIREARMS

All firearms offered in this sale are either antiques or deactivated.

EXPORT LICENCES

May be required for objects of archaeological interest or of national importance sold to buyers outside the State.

Victoria Cross Recipient's Silver Sports Trophy, Eton College Arms, King Edward's Grammar School cup, hallmarked for London 1789 engraved with the recipient's from 1901, some illustrious soldiers and sportsmen such as:

*1906/8: Sir Eugen Millington-Drake, rowed in Oxford's winning boat race 1911, involved in the Olympic delegations of 1926 and 1948.

*1913/16/17: Sir Harold Peake KB, Air Commodore during WWII, rowed for Cambridge after WWI, married to Felicity Peake, the first director of the WAAF and WRAF during WWII, she was the presenter of this trophy.

*1914: C.S. Egerton Green, captain of the Rifle Brigade, died of wounds at Boulogne 1917.

*1907: Neville Bowes Elliott-Cooper, VC, DSO, MC, Lieutenant-Colonel who died in a POW camp in 1918.

- Lieutenant Colonel Neville Bowes Elliott Cooper, VC, DSO and MC was born January 22nd 1889 at Lancaster Gate, London, W2, he was educated at Eton College and the Royal Military Academy at Sandhurst. Before WWI he saw service in South Africa, Mauritius, and India.
- By 1917 he had become a Lieutenant Colonel commanding the 8th Battalion of the Royal Fusiliers. He was awarded the Victoria Cross for action near La Vacquerie, France during the Battle of Cambrai on the 30th November, 1917.
- MC citation: London Gazette 14th May 1916 'For conspicuous ability in organising an attack on 15th April 1916, and consolidating craters subsequently gained. He has shown great ability in many difficult situations'.
- DSO citation: London Gazette 18th July 1917 'For rallying his battalion when it had become temporarily disorganised and for leading forward a patrol of twenty men under heavy fire and for returning to his Brigadier with twenty prisoners and valuable information.'
- From his citation for the VC - "For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty. Hearing that the enemy had broken through our outpost line, he rushed out of his dug-out, and on seeing them advancing across the open he mounted the parapet and dashed forward calling upon the Reserve Company and details of the Battalion Headquarters to follow. Absolutely unarmed, he made straight for the advancing enemy, and under his direction our men forced them back 600 yards. While still some forty yards in front he was severely wounded. Realising that his men were greatly outnumbered and suffering heavy casualties, he signalled to them to withdraw, regardless of the fact that he himself must be taken prisoner. By his prompt and gallant leading he gained time for the reserves to move up and occupy the line of defence."
- Elliott-Cooper's V.C. was announced in the "London Gazette" February 13, 1918, two days after he had died in the hospital of No. 1 POW Camp, Lazaret, Hanover, Germany. His V.C. medal is on display in the Royal Fusiliers Museum at the Tower of London.

1915 (8 May). After Fortunino Matania. The last general Absolution of the Munsters at Rue du Bois.

Inscribed "With Compliments, Francis A. Gleeson c.F., 7th April 1919". This is the scarce coloured print and with Father Gleeson's signature is extremely rare. The original painting was destroyed during World War II. A version of this print was originally published in The Sphere 27 November 1916. On 8 May 1915, on the eve of the Battle of Aubers Ridge, Father Gleeson addressed the assembled 2nd Battalion, Royal Munster Fusiliers, at a roadside shrine and gave the general absolution. The battalion suffered heavily in the battle and when paraded again afterwards only 200 men were assembled. Framed."

1916. Easter Monday. It was a perfect day - cool breeze sunshine and cloudless sky.
George & I took train to Carrickminish in the morning & walked from there across the Scalp to Glen-cullen bridge where we sat our lunch & then on to the Top of Plinze Williams, east so called on O.S.

hard it was to imagine the fact of the war & then killing each other in Flanders much more of what was taking place in Dublin. We came down by the big wood & had tea at Collins in Suncastle & then walked into Bray which we reached about 6 o'cl - on the way I heard a woman say something about abandoned & wondering how they would get back but of course did not pay any attention to it. On arrival at the station a man said that the Sinn Feiners had ## 1916 (24 to 28 April) Manuscript contemporaneous eye witness account of the Rising by a Dublin solicitor.

Written by Edward J. French, a solicitor practising at 7 St. Stephen's Green. A very interesting account starting with disruption of his train journey from Bray after a hill walk on the holiday Monday - Sinn Feiners had seized the station in Dublin". At Kingstown he heard "policemen being shot and The Munster Fusiliers called up from camp had sided with the rebels", an acquaintance "Geo. Knox" was shot at Stephen's Green. On Tuesday he heard firing at 5.30am and walked from his home in Donnybrook, where the police station was closed, and mentions barricades at the Shelbourne Hotel, a dead horse on the pavement, shooting between soldiers in the Shelbourne and rebels in the College of Surgeons "distinctly an unhealthy area" so he didn't go to his office on the Green. He walked as far as Abbey Street and describes "the GPO garrisoned by rebels" with "the Republican flag" flying over it. He mentions an acquaintance "Browning", "having been shot ...returning from a march of the GR Volunteers". Good detail about the rest of the week including news from other acquaintances concerning rebels at Castlebellingham, "good deal of blood about" (on the Green), account of Sherwood Foresters ignoring warnings that they would be ambushed at Mount Street Bridge, "a good few were killed", gunboat shelling Bolands and "a shell came whizzing past" at Baggot Street, and much more. Fascinating atmospheric account, pp13. Accompanied by biographical notes on the writer."

An Claidreamh Soluis. Rare June 3 1916 edition and collection of 1917 issues.

First issue after the Rising. Printed date of Meitheamh 3 1916 overstamped 5 JUN 1916 by rubber stamp in violet. Photograph of a train derailed on the first night of the Rising to prevent the arrival of two trainloads of soldiers from Athlone. Interesting content, not entirely supportive of the Rising, but later issues of 1917 are more sympathetic to armed insurrection. (9).

ENNISCORTHY

Full Story of the Rising

A REBEL CAMP

Nationalists Assist Police
Authority

The rising at Enniscorthy started shortly after 2 o'clock on Thursday morning, April 28. At that hour about 200 Sinn Féin men who had gathered about town during the night assembled at the town hall, one of the principal buildings in the town. The atmosphere was most excited and patriotic, while some were determined to fight to the end of the line. About 20 minutes later, the number of combatants in the town, were increased, and they began to move out of the town to occupy the police barracks. A number of the rebels were wounded, and the police were forced to retreat. The rebels then moved on to the police barracks, and the police were forced to retreat. The rebels then moved on to the police barracks, and the police were forced to retreat.

GAS MAIN BURSTS

City Shaken With the Force

A violent explosion was heard today at 10.15 in the city about 2 o'clock. As it had it was feared by mistake in setting off a bomb. But some minutes afterwards had happened in the heart of the town. Windows were shaken and many houses in the neighbourhood of the explosion and had some people with the explosion. Some people attributed the shock to the collapse of a house in O'Connell Street. Investigation showed that a gas main had burst on O'Connell Street near the corner of the city.

RUMANIA'S RECOVERY

Pressing the Enemy in the Passes

"CRITICAL MOMENT OVER"

Press from the TRANSILVANIA FRONT continues to be satisfactory. Both of the Volcani Passes the Rumanians are still driving the enemy northwards, and have captured a further 100 prisoners, making a total of 1000 since Saturday at 1.30.

Violent fighting is in progress on the Gura, southwest of Munkacs. The Rumanians, who are in sight of a city, are holding the last position and are, however, making efforts against the position strongly held by the Germans and the Bulgarians, and have made progress here and southwest of Lata. Progress towards the extreme left of the Alpine front.

Bulgarian Official
(Press Association War Special.)

The following official communication was issued in Sofia today:—
WRECKING FRONT—We again repulsed several Rumanian attacks with many casualties which had resulted in 1000.

In the case of Lata, which is the eastern part of the Gura, the Rumanians attempted to attack, but were repulsed by counterattacks and driven back into their original position.

We also repulsed a weak enemy attack near Munkacs and on both sides of the Volcani there were engagements.

On the Balkan front and on the Struma the enemy's artillery bombarded without result some of the established positions.

Before our eyes on the Alpine front there is a fall.

RUMANIAN FRONT—Situation unchanged.

Critical Moment Over

The Bulgarian commandant of the "Zurich Station" interviewed the Rumanian Prisoner, M. Bralovic, who states that Rumania has now definitely passed the critical moment, and there is no fear that she will share the fate of Serbia.

She is backed by Russia, and is now ready to take a vigorous offensive. The population is unanimous in its determination to fight the war to a finish.

RAIDS IN THE WEST

German Trenches Entered at Two Points

SHELLING ON THE SOMME

To-Day's British Official
(Press Association War Special.)

From General Headquarters in France, 10.45 a.m.

During the night we conducted successful raids on the enemy's trenches west of Ypres and in the neighbourhood of Messines.

There was intensive and hostile shelling on our front south of the Aisne.

Otherwise there is nothing to report.

ARTILLERY ACTIVITY
(Press Association War Special.)

Paris, 10.45 a.m.

The French and German commandants agree to recognise that a truce has been called today on the Western front on account of the day's fighting.

The artillery does about continuous work, a truce existing on the Somme, as well as on the Aisne. But there was no truce on the latter.

According to the latest news received in London the German offensive on the 1st has been abandoned for the time being, and it is expected that the truce will be extended to the Somme, the Aisne, and the other fronts, and that the fighting will be confined to the night.

It was understood in London, it is believed, that the German offensive, which began last night, was of a limited nature, and that the German commandant, who before the attack on October 31 had the reputation of being a very capable leader, was in no way successful.

the President

The survivors of the old Third Battalion of the Dublin Brigade of the Irish Volunteers were delighted when Bolands Limited decided to erect a plaque to the memory of the men who fought in the Bolands Bakery and Mills area in Easter Week, 1916. They knew that this plaque would remind the coming generations of the gallantry of those who fifty years ago gave their lives to assert Ireland's right to freedom and so led us to the freedom we now enjoy. They knew, too, that it would be an inspiration to those who saw it to serve the nation with unselfish devotion, and to use rightly for the general well-being the liberties that had been won.

We are, also, grateful to Bolands for the 1916 jubilee celebrations organised by them. The reception brought us, old comrades, together on the site now historic and enabled us, in unison, to thank Providence for the results that in the fifty years have been so happily achieved.

Tréaslaímid, mar sin, a dtreallús le Comhlacht Uí Bheoláin agus bheirimid ár mbuíochas dóibh as ucht a gcineáltais agus a ndúthrachta. Go n-éirí go geal leo sna blianta atá rompu.

on the Drink Question.

[TRANSLATION].

After the hardships that have been endured by the Irish people on account of the faith and loyalty they have shown in traversing the hard, narrow road to freedom, there are few people who will say that they have not fully deserved their freedom. There is, however, at least one more thing to be done, and perhaps they will not reach the goal of their ambitions until they have done it, and that is throw aside the bad, foolish habit that has been too long prevalent in our midst, that of spending millions of pounds on drink. Those who indulge in strong drink not only injure their bodies and minds by their drinking, but they support their deadly enemy and help him to keep themselves in slavery. There are thousands of men amongst us, not to mention women, who are ready at any moment to obey the call and go out and face death for Ireland. We have recently amazed the nations of the world by our power of resistance and our heroism. On account of what we have done other subject nations who have long endured the lash of the tyrant, are standing firm and manfully facing their persecutors. It is we who are responsible for this, it is we who have taught them to fight.

And while this is true there are people, hundreds of them, alas! and hardly a day passes that they do not spend a shilling or two or three or perhaps more in satisfying their gluttony for drink. Irishmen heaping money into the pockets of John Bull! Are we still infants or when shall we get sense? Do we give any heed to the work of firmly establishing the Republic. Was it for people like these that the brave Terence MacSweeney persevered in his fast from day to day, from week to week and from month to month until his noble, stainless soul parted from his body? Was it to bestow freedom on such that Seán MacDermot faced the firing party with joy in his heart and flame in his eyes?

Is it not clear to these people who indulge in drink that it is impossible to drive John Bull from our shores while they are aiding him in this manner? Is it possible to convince them they are doing the work of England in Ireland better than Englishmen could do it themselves? They must be convinced! They must be made to realise their duties in this matter.

However these people may have been excused in the past, they shall have no excuse in the future. If they persist in this folly we shall have no other alternative but to brand them as traitors and deal with them as traitors deserve. Too patient we have been with them up to this, but perhaps the day is not far distant when we shall have to give George Washington's choice to this enemy in our midst.

Can we have any greater enemy than people who call themselves Irishmen, but who, instead of acting as Irishmen

Monthly Report.

Organisation The state of organisation in the Batt.
area though of a very poor standard has shown a ~~very~~ slight improvement during the past month. A new squad has been formed in Moate the strength at present is six men but I expect this number to be increased during the coming month, no organisation existed in this area for a number of years. In Mountemple where for the past couple of years there were only two volunteers the strength has increased to eight men. The only other squad where the number on roll has increased is "Breggan" where the number has increased from five to nine men these units belong to A. Coy (I will deal further with them in report)

The Royal Ulster Rifles Benevolent Funds

APPEAL WEEK

7TH-14TH APRIL, 1945

The Committee appeals to the citizens of Belfast, the Counties of Antrim and Down and all other friends of the R.U.R. to help the men of their OWN County Regiment, whose glorious history was never more worthily upheld than in this War.

Many of these magnificent soldiers will undoubtedly be in need of financial assistance on their return home and in the uncertainty of the years that follow. They have voluntarily gone to fight for YOU—you should contribute all you can afford to this fully accredited Regimental Fund, which will, as far as funds permit, endeavour to alleviate any distress amongst ex-Riflemen or their dependants, no matter where they are domiciled.

Subscriptions will be gratefully received and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, R.U.R. Benevolent Fund, 61 Gt. Victoria Street, Belfast.

PLEASE HELP THE MEN OF YOUR OWN COUNTY REGIMENT.

President John F. Kennedy - letter from Blaze Starr describing an encounter with the President.

Blaze Starr in a letter to Ernie" describes how she first met JFK in Washington in 1952 when she was a stripper at a burlesque club. She claims in this letter to have renewed her acquaintance with him in 1960 when he was in the White House. She describes a tryst in the Lincoln Bedroom while Jackie "was on a cruise". Ms Starr includes a drawing of herself nude and the letter is mounted with a glamour photograph of Ms Starr signed. Bizarre but interesting."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE NOTICE

Whyte & Sons Auctioneers Limited, trading as Whyte's, exercises all reasonable care to ensure that all descriptions are reliable and accurate, and that each item is genuine unless the contrary is indicated. However, the descriptions are not intended to be, are not and are not to be taken to be, statements of fact or representations of fact in relation to the lot. They are statements of the opinion of Whyte's, and attention is particularly drawn to clause 5 set out below. Comments and opinions, which may be found in or on lots as labels, notes, lists, catalogue prices, or any other means of expression, do not constitute part of lot descriptions and are not to be taken as such unless they are made or specifically verified by Whyte's.

Clause 1

- (a) Each lot is put up subject to any reserve price imposed by the vendor
- (b) Subject to sub-clause (a) of this clause, the highest bidder for each lot shall be the buyer thereof
- (c) If any dispute arises as to the highest bidder the auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the dispute and may put up again and re-sell the lot in respect of which the dispute arises

Clause 2

- (a) The bidding and advances shall be regulated by and at the absolute discretion of the auctioneer and he shall have the right to refuse any bid or bids. NOTE: Where an agent bids, even on behalf of a disclosed client, the auctioneer nevertheless has the right at his discretion to refuse any such bid.
- (b) The buyer of each lot shall immediately on its sale, if required by the auctioneer, give him the name and address of the buyer and pay to Whyte's at his discretion the whole or part of the purchase money. If the buyer of any lot fails to comply with any such requirement Whyte's may put up again and re-sell the lot; if upon such re-sale a lower price is obtained than was obtained on the first sale the buyer in default on the first sale shall make good the difference in price and expenses of re-sale which shall become a debt due from him.
- (c) Where an agent purchases on behalf of an undisclosed client such agent shall be personally liable for payment of the purchase money to Whyte's and for safe delivery of the lot to the said client.

Clause 3

- (a) Whyte's reserves the rights to bid on behalf of clients including vendors, but shall not be liable for errors or omissions in executing instructions to bid.
- (b) Whyte's reserves the rights, before or during a sale, to group together lots belonging to the same vendor, to split up and to withdraw any lot or lots at Whyte's absolute discretion and without giving any reason in any case.
- (c) Whyte's acts as agent only, and therefore shall not be liable for any default of the buyer or vendor.

Clause 4

- (a) Each lot shall be at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer and shall be paid for in full before delivery and taken away at his expense within one day of the sale. The buyer will be responsible for all removal, storage and insurance charges in respect of any lot which has not been collected within one day of the date of sale.
- (b) If any buyer fails to pay in full for any lot within 7 days of the date of sale such lot may at any time thereafter at Whyte's discretion be put up for sale by auction again or sold privately; if upon such re-sale a lower price is obtained than was obtained on the first sale the buyer in default on the first sale shall make good the difference in price and the expenses of re-sale which shall become debt due from him.
- (c) Interest at 2 per cent per month and legal costs (if any) for recovery of monies due shall be payable by the buyer on any overdue account.

Clause 5

- (a) All lots are made available for inspection before each sale and each buyer, by making a bid, acknowledges that he has satisfied himself as to the physical condition, age and catalogue description of each lot (including but not restricted to whether the lot is damaged or has been repaired or restored).
- (b) All lots are sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description and Whyte's and its employees, servants or agents shall not be responsible for any error of description or for the condition or authenticity of any lot, save for Clause 5 (c) below.

Written or verbal condition reports may be supplied by Whyte's on request but these are merely statements of opinion, and any error or omission in these reports may not be taken as grounds for a cancellation of sale or refund of any part of the purchase price or the cost of any repairs to the lot or lots reported on

- (c) If any lot sold at this auction is subsequently proved to be a "deliberate forgery", Whyte's will cancel the sale and refund to the buyer the total amount paid by the buyer for the item, in the currency of the original sale. The onus of proving a lot to be a "deliberate forgery" is on the buyer. For these purposes, "deliberate forgery" means a lot that in Whyte's reasonable opinion is an imitation created to deceive as to authorship, where the correct description of such authorship is not reflected by the description in the catalogue (taking into account any Glossary of Terms). No lot shall be considered a deliberate forgery by reason only of any damage and/or restoration and/or modification work of any kind (including repainting or overpainting). This guarantee does not apply if (i) either the catalogue description was in accordance with the generally accepted opinions of scholars and experts at the date of the sale, or the catalogue description indicated that there was a conflict of such opinions; (ii) or the only method of establishing at the date of the sale that the item was a counterfeit would have been by means of processes not then generally available or accepted, unreasonably expensive or impractical to use; or likely to have caused damage to the lot or likely (in Whyte's reasonable opinion) to have caused loss of value to the lot; or (iii) there has been no material loss in value of the lot from its value had it been in accordance with its description. This guarantee is provided for a period of seven (7) years after the date of the relevant auction, is solely for the benefit of the buyer and may not be transferred to any third party. Whyte's has discretion to extend the guarantee for a longer period. To be able to claim under this Guarantee, the buyer must (i) notify Whyte's in writing within three (3) weeks of receiving any information that causes the buyer to question the authenticity or attribution of the item, specifying the lot number, date of the auction at which it was purchased and the reasons why it is thought to be a deliberate forgery; and (ii) return the item to Whyte's in the same condition as the date of the sale to the buyer and be able to transfer good title in the item, free from the third party claims arising after the date of the sale. Whyte's has discretion to waive any of the above requirements. Whyte's may require the buyer to obtain at the buyer's cost the reports of two independent and recognised experts in the field, mutually acceptable to Whyte's and the buyer. Whyte's shall not be bound by any reports produced by the buyer, and reserves the right to seek additional expert advice at its own expense. In the event Whyte's decides to rescind the sale under this Guarantee, it may refund the buyer the reasonable costs of up to two mutually approved independent expert reports.

(d) Any lot listed as a "mixed lot, collection, range, portfolio etc." or stated to comprise or contain a collection or range of items which are not described shall be put up for sale not subject to rejection and shall be taken by the buyer with all (if any) faults, lack of genuineness and errors of description and numbers of items in the lot, and the buyer shall have no right to reject the lot; except that, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this sub-clause, where before a sale a person intending to bid at the sale gives notice in writing to, and satisfies Whyte's that any such lot contains any item or items not described in the sale catalogue and that person specifically describes that item or those items in that notice, then that item or those items shall, as between Whyte's and that person, be taken to form part of the description of the lot.

Clause 6

The respective rights and obligations of the parties shall be governed and interpreted by Irish law, and the buyer hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Irish Courts.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

- (a) The buyer shall pay Whyte's a commission at the rate of 24.6% (including VAT under The Margin Scheme and which is not reclaimable). Internet buyers shall pay an extra fee of 3%.
  - (b) Whyte's or its employees, servants or agents may, on request organise packing and shipping of lots purchased or may order on the buyer's behalf third parties to pack or ship purchases. Under no circumstances does Whyte's accept any liability whatsoever for any loss or damage howsoever occasioned in the course of such service.
  - (c) The buyer authorises Whyte's to use any photographs or illustrations of any lot purchased for any or all purposes as Whyte's may require.
- The placing of a bid will be taken as full agreement to all the above conditions.
